Finances

The situation we find ourselves in right now is a good example of why online giving (ACH, Credit Card) is so important to organizations like the Church and others that rely on donations as their major source of income.

Immaculate Conception will still have bills to pay in the coming weeks, just like all our families do, and we will rely on you, our family, just like we always do, to continue with your weekly contributions to meet our financial obligations..

Please consider signing up for ACH or going to our website to make your contribution via credit card. An ACH application is attached to this email. If you have questions, please contact the parish office.
